Safety rating

This ANCAP safety rating is a best-effort determination and may be incorrect if the engine has been modified. It is also important to note that in New South Whales, they have determined the vehicle to be “high risk for novice drivers” regardless of the power to weight ratio.

ANCAP rating	★★★★★	Airbags	7
ANCAP year	2012	P plate status (WA)	Allowed

What is the ANCAP Rating?

ANCAP safety ratings are published for a range of new vehicles entering the Australian and New Zealand markets, using a rating system of 0 to 5 stars. ANCAP star ratings indicate the level of safety a vehicle provides for occupants and pedestrians in the event of a crash, as well as its ability to avoid or minimise the severity of a crash. Find out more on car safety at ancap.com.au.

Terms and helpful information

Get the most out of this guide. Understand the terms used in this report and identify the key things to look out for when buying a used car.

Glossary of terms

No financial interests reported

If a financial interest is reported, it usually means the vehicle is still under finance at the time of the report. A financial interest reported on a vehicle is perfectly normal. If you are buying from a private seller, be sure to discuss with them how this interest will be removed before finalising the purchase. For your peace of mind, make sure all financial interests are cleared and encumbrances removed before finalising the purchase. Requesting evidence of payment from the seller is also recommended, and for an added layer of security, consider reaching out to the financing party for verification.

No write off incidents reported

A "written off" vehicle has experienced damage or an accident. Some are termed "statutory write-offs" and can't be re-registered, while others are repairable ("repairable" or "economic" write-offs) if they pass safety inspections. Buying a written-off car isn't necessarily discouraged, but safety checks and verifying ownership are crucial. Contact your local road authority for more info on the "write-off" details in your mymoto report.

No safety recalls reported

Vehicle and component recalls are a critical part of keeping you and the vehicles on our roads safe. A vehicle or component recall can occur if there is a safety issue that may cause injury or if the vehicle or component does not comply with applicable standards. When a vehicle or component is recalled we will publish a recall notice to our Vehicle Recalls website. You can also enter your vehicle's details on this website to see if it is currently affected by any active recall.

No odometer history reporter

The mymoto team and affiliated partners check the vehicles odometer and allows you to find any inconsistent odometer records for the vehicle. You can then determine whether the odometer may be faulty or may have been tampered with. If you suspect an odometer discrepancy, please contact us or use the link at the bottom of the page.

No stolen status reported

If your vehicle is labeled "stolen," it indicates it was stolen at some point, either currently or in the past. To learn more, get in touch with the state or territory law enforcement mentioned on the Personal Property Securities Register \(PPSR\) certificate in your report. A PPSR certificate is an Australian Government initiative designed to protect consumers.

Warranty

Car warranties vary for manufacturers and dealerships. A manufacturer's new-car warranty usually lasts at least five to seven years/100,000km. Used cars sold by dealers usually come with a three-month, 5000km warranty. To be safe, always check with the warranty with the manufacturer and the dealership.

A stolen vehicle notification, or the absence of one, does not necessarily mean a vehicle is or is not stolen.

This search certificate reflects the data contained in the PPSR at 08/06/2023 09:21:47 (Canberra Time).

If there is a stolen vehicle notification you wish to enquire about, you should contact the police force in the State or Territory indicated immediately after the date in the notification. The reference number at the end of the notification should be quoted as a part of your enquiry.

Please note that there may be multiple stolen notifications shown. A stolen notification can be for a VIN, Plate, Chassis and/or Engine.

Vehicle information is requested from Austroads NEVDIS database for each transaction involving a vehicle VIN or Chassis Number on the PPSR. The data is not part of interests registered on the PPSR and it is presented without any guarantee regarding its accuracy.

The NEVDIS data is intended to assist users with checking that the VIN or Chassis Number they entered, along with information they have about the vehicle from other sources, is accurate and to provide users with any data held on NEVDIS about a vehicle's stolen or written off status.

State and territory road agencies are the main source of NEVDIS data and the primary point of contact for enquiries, errors, and corrections.

Access to and use of data provided through the PPSR is subject to the PPSR General Conditions of Use and applicable third party data conditions (which can be obtained at www.ppsr.gov.au). To the extent permitted by law, all data provided through the PPSR is made available without any representation or warranty of any kind (without limitation in respect to accuracy) and the Commonwealth, and our third party data providers (which includes any person mentioned in the Third Party Data Conditions as providing information through the PPSR), have no liability to you in respect of any loss or damage that you might suffer no matter how arising (including negligence) that is directly or indirectly related to the NEVDIS Data.

How to verify this certificate on the PPSR

You can use the search number from an original search (as shown on this certificate) to retrieve the original search results and to issue a copy of the search certificate at <https://transact.ppsr.gov.au/ppsr/Home>. There is no fee, however this process will not provide any update to the information in the original search.

Privacy and Terms and Conditions

The Australian Financial Security Authority is subject to the Privacy Act 1988 which requires that we comply with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) set out in the Act. The APPs set out how Australian Government agencies should collect, use, store and disclose personal information and how individuals can access records containing their personal information.

Access to and use of the PPSR is subject to the General Conditions of Use, as well as other relevant terms and conditions. All relevant terms and conditions can be found at www.ppsr.gov.au.
